Arvil Howard Scott

Howard Scott lived near Utah Lake on a farm on land that intermittently would be covered by high lake water.

He had saved enough money to build a nice home, but he decided to go to Charleston & invest it in a ranch near the mouth of Decker's canyon.

He did just that & put his 16 yr old son ^{Arvil} on the ranch & built a modest ranch house.

In the years to follow Arvil Howard farmed; raising pure bred ^{percher} horses, alfalfa, & later became successful in raising seed potatoes, seed beets, & seed grains for the Utah State Agricultural College in Logan Utah.

Arvil met, courted & married Mary Ethel Widdison 10 July 1913, daughter of Heber William Widdison & Julia Ann Bagley Widdison.

Arvil Howard Scott was born in Provo Utah 17 Nov 1891, son of Howard Scott & Eunice Lester Stubbs Scott.

Arvil & Mary had five children:
1. Stella, 2. Zola, 3. Lova, 4. Wren Arvil
5. Wanda - all born in Charleston, Wasatch County Utah

In talking to Zola Scott Wright Cochran on 15 June 1988 she said she
